Descendants of Samuel Hutchinson

First Generation

1. Samuel Hutchinson [247] was born in 1765 in Glasgow, Lanarkshire, Scotland, died in 1803 in Charlottetown, PEI, Canada, aged 38, and was buried in Charlottetown, PEI, Canada. The cause of his death was Complications from injuries due to a bear attack.

Samuel Hutchinson was a Jesuit priest who, in 1790, sailed from Glasgow, Scotland to Prince Edward Island. He travelled in the company of Angus MacEachern, who later became the first Bishop of Charlottetown, and Elizabeth Wilder, who was travelling to take a position as governess in the household of Governor Walter Patterson.

During the voyage in 1790, Samuel met Elizabeth Wilder, and they formed a relationship. Upon arriving on Prince Edward Island, he left the priesthood and went to work with Elizabeth at Warren Farm in Rocky Point, Prince Edward Island.

In Oct 1792, Samuel Hutchinson married Elizabeth Wilder in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. Following their marriage, they resided on Lot 73 in the first hundred of Charlottetown, located at the corner of Queen and Sydney Streets. The property included a building known as St. John's Coffee House, and it is believed that Samuel and Elizabeth operated a restaurant there.

By 1798, Samuel and Elizabeth were living on Lots 39 and 40 in the area later known as Morell, Prince Edward Island. It is believed that Samuel moved there to work in a mill. During this period, he rented St. John's Coffee House to the Supreme Court for three terms between 22 Jul 1800 and 2 Mar 1802, and also for use as a church from 1799 to 17 Aug 1802.

In the winter of 1803, Samuel set out by sleigh with an ox and the family dog to gather firewood. At a place known as Bloody Hill, a bear attacked the ox. When Samuel intervened, the bear attacked him. Samuel and the dog killed the bear, but he suffered severe injuries and died approximately two weeks later.

Samuel Hutchinson died in 1803 in Prince Edward Island from injuries sustained in the bear attack. He is believed to have been buried in the old Catholic cemetery in Southport.

Samuel owned multiple properties in Charlottetown, including Lots 52, 95, 96, 97, 98, and 99 in the third hundred, which were sold at public auction on 6 Feb 1806 for unpaid taxes while Elizabeth was in England. He also owned Lot 84, acquired on 10 Apr 1800 from Edward Fanning, and Lots 8, 9, and 59 in the fifth hundred, purchased on 13 Dec 1793.

Samuel and Elizabeth had three sons and two daughters.

Samuel married Elizabeth Wilder [246]. Elizabeth was born in 1764 in Etwall, Derbyshire, England and died on 24 Dec 1851 in Hull, Yorkshire, England, aged 87.

Samuel Hutchinson and Elizabeth Wilder were married in Oct 1792 in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, at St. Paul's Anglican Church. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Thomas DesBrisay.

Elizabeth Wilder travelled in 1790 from Glasgow, Scotland to Prince Edward Island to work as a governess in the home of Governor Walter Patterson.

During the voyage in 1790, Elizabeth met Samuel Hutchinson, and they formed a relationship. After arriving on Prince Edward Island, she worked with him at Warren Farm in Rocky Point.

In Oct 1792, Elizabeth Wilder married Samuel Hutchinson in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. Following their marriage, they lived on Lot 73 in Charlottetown, where they are believed to have operated a restaurant in St. John's Coffee House.

By 1798, Elizabeth was living with Samuel in the Morell area of Prince Edward Island. After Samuel's death in 1803, she returned to Charlottetown and operated a tavern in St. John's Coffee House.

Emily lived with her grandparents in Lot 16, Prince Edward Island, where she received her early education. At about age 16, she moved to Idaho with her grandmother to live with her mother. The circumstances of her upbringing suggest Emily may have been born out of wedlock, as she took her mother's maiden name.

In Idaho, Emily assisted with hotel work until her marriage. Although she wished to become a nurse, she did not pursue training until later in life, when she undertook some training and worked in home nursing. Emily's delayed entry into nursing reflects the constraints of family responsibilities common in that era, with later-life training enabling her to fulfill an earlier aspiration.

On 8 Dec 1915, Emily married Leonard Frances Tull. She was age 22 at the time of the marriage.

On 15 July 1943, Helen married Robert Douglas Lawrence. She was age 19 at the time of the marriage.

Helen was active in sports, including bowling, curling, tennis, and golf, and later became a life master with the

Descendants of Samuel Hutchinson

American Contract Bridge League.

In 1958 Helen and her husband Robert purchased a plot of shorefront land in Little Shimogue (pronounced "shim-a-gwee"), a rural, unincorporated community in Westmorland County within the geographic region of Botsford Parish, but everyone simply calls it Murray Corner. They subdivided the land into eleven lots, keeping the best lot for themselves upon which Robert built a cottage. One year later, Helen's parents, Herbert and Hughie, purchased one of the lots and built their own cottage. In 1987 Houghie passed the that cottage down to Ral, Helen's older brother. In 2002, Ruth (Helen's younger sister) and her husband Don purchased a cottage on same original plot of land. Helen's original cottage has passed down to her son, David and his wife, Brenda. The Lawrence family held a memorial at Helen's cottage in honour of her passing in May of the year after she died, once COVID restrictions had subsided.

Ral and Ruth sold their cottages.

Helen's husband Robert died on 14 August 1967 when Helen was age 43. Her son Michael died in 1969 when Helen was about age 46 after suffering injuries from a car crash. Her son Robert died in 2008 from a heart attack when Helen was about age 85.
